REVIEWS

My tour with Scott Trees and Cavago was the best organized I have ever experienced. The photographer Scott Trees was excellent. Willing to share, offering tips and support, capable with horses, friendly.
The accommodations were well chosen for location and quality.The equestrian host sites offered a variety of experiences so we could build on the previous sessions. Meeting Clemence was a special treat as was the backstage tour with the surprise sherry tasting with Javier.
Thank you for making such special memories! And capturing our group in your own creative images. Especially that group shot in the Real Escuela. Thank you Anam!!

Thank you so much for all your hard work making this tour happen. It was wonderful to be part of it. No major complaints and it certainly ranks higher than most other tours. It was ideal for my sister and me, who share interests of horses, photography and travel.
Scott, Anam and our lovely, kind and fun Juan could not have been better, and you all balanced each other well. It was so nice to have an actual horse person leading, rather than just a photographer who photographs horses. Being able to read the horses was a big plus.
Photo shoots: Letting the stallions run at Yeguada Cartuja and spending the day with Clémence and her horses were tops! And everything at the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art.
Again, thank you so much! The photos I've posted are getting a lot of attention from my FB fans, especially my local friend who raises Lusitanos. I would highly recommend Scott's tours and Cavago.
